Orlando & Associates garners $100,000.00 for Victim of Motor Vehicle Accident

In April of 2009, while operating his vehicle on Route One South in Rowley, our client was injured when a driver heading in the opposite direction ran a stop sign and broadsided his vehicle. Our client sustained multiple injuries, including to his thighs and lower back, as well as extensive damage to his vehicle.

In negotiations, Attorney Joseph M. Orlando argued that, irrespective of prior back surgeries (pre-dating the accident in question), our client's injuries were significant and that payment of the policy limits of $100,000.00 was required.

The defendant's insurance company balked and made an inadequate offer. Attorney Orlando then sent a bad faith letter, thereby exposing the insurance company to the potential for treble damages. The insurance company relented and paid the policy limits.

"I am pleased that we were able to successfully negotiate this settlement on behalf of this man," commented Attorney Orlando, "It is important to make the case to insurance companies that they must pay for the injuries sustained by innocent victims of dangerous drivers."
